

How to get to the Kongress Palais Kassel

Travel the comfortable and affordable way with the Deutsche Bahn "Kongressticket"

You couldn't travel more eco-friendly: take the train to your convention in Kassel (ICE station Kassel-Wilhelmshöhe) from as little as 99 euros and minimise the carbon footprint of your journey. With this joint special offer by Kassel Marketing GmbH and Deutsche Bahn, you can save money when you travel to Kassel for a convention! Take the train and benefit from attractive prices as well as attractive terms and conditions. You can find further information here.

From the ICE station Kassel Wilhelmshöhe, it takes five minutes to reach the Kongress Palais. Take tram line number 4 (towards Kaufungen/Papierfabrik/Helsa).

By car

The Kongress Palais Kassel has two multi-storey car parks that offer space for 105 vehicles. There are other public car parks nearby.

A7 motorway (north to south): Leave the A7 at the junction Kassel-Mitte and take exit 79 onto the A49; exit the A49 at Kassel Auestadion (exit 5), then follow the signs for "DB Wilhelmshöhe" and/or "Stadthalle"

A44 (coming from Dortmund): A44 to Kassel-Wilhelmshöhe (exit 68), then follow the signs for "DB Wilhelmshöhe" and/or "Stadthalle".

Please enter the following address if using a satnav:

Kongress Palais Kassel, Holger-Börner-Platz 1, 34119 Kassel, Germany

Parking options:

- Multi-storey car park, 105 spaces
- Additional public parking spaces available close to the Kongress Palais

Kassel Airport

Kassel Airport provides a direct connection to the European network of flight routes. This means that Kassel cannot only be reached via two stations and the motorway, but also by air.

From the airport, which is just outside Kassel, you can get to the Kongress Palais and back again very quickly with public transport.

Information on Kassel Airport.

On the move in the local area with public transport

The regional transport provider provides a conference and congress ticket for the city and region of Kassel to guarantee mobility in the local area. With two stops right on its doorstep, the Kongress Palais Kassel is optimally connected to the local transport network.

On the move with bus and tram: www.nvv.de

To get to the city centre from the Kongress Palais, take tram line 4 (Kaufungen/Papierfabrik/ Helsa) from the Holger-Börner-Platz main entrance or line 8 (towards Kaufungen/Papierfabrik) from the Aschrottplatz main entrance.

Coming from the city centre, line 4 (towards Mattenberg) stops in front of the Holger-Börner-Platz main entrance; line 8 (towards Hessenschanze) stops in front of the Aschrottplatz main entrance.