

DB Event Ticket as a Online Ticket

Step-by-Step Instructions

DB Vertrieb GmbH | Event Ticket | 2020

You want to use your own computer to book your ticket conveniently and use it right away? The Online-Ticket is our solution for you

- ✓ You can book the ticket until shortly before your train departs.
- ✓ You can print tickets out or load them into the DB Navigator app.
- ✓ Simply show the train attendant your printed or mobile phone ticket together with your state-issued ID card, passport or BahnCard.

How to book your Online-Ticket

Step 1:

Plan your journey!

- Use the travel button on the event organiser's page to book your Event Ticket.
- Select your departure and arrival train stations
- Simply click the date field to pick your travel dates. Note that travel dates are limited, based on the event's dates.
- Select your preferred class.
- Click "Search" to proceed.
- Note: An Event Ticket can cover up to 5 people travelling together. Please note that in this case the system issues only one ticket. If you require individual tickets for each traveller, they need to be booked individually.

Step 2:

The screenshot shows the 'Selection' step of the booking process. At the top, a progress bar indicates the steps: Search (checked), Selection (current), Reservation, Passenger, Review and book, and Confirmation. Below this, the journey details are shown: Outward journey from FRANKFURT(MAIN) to Berlin Hbf (tief) on Do, 17.09.2020, and Return journey from Berlin Hbf (tief) to FRANKFURT(MAIN) on Do, 17.09.2020. There is 1 Adult passenger.

A 'Modify details' button is visible. The main content is divided into two sections: 'Outward journey on 17.09.2020' and 'Return journey on 17.09.2020'. Each section contains a table of train options with columns for Stop, Time, Duration, Chg., Products, Event, additional offers, and Connection.

How to refund your Online-Ticket

Step 8:

The screenshot shows the DB website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Offers', 'Booking Information', 'Train Fleet', 'My Bahn', and 'Login'. Below this is a search bar and a main content area with a train image. A search form is visible with fields for 'from station/stop/address', 'to station/stop/address', a date 'Tue, 27.11.18', and a time '11:27'. Below the search form, there is a promotional banner for 'German Rail Pass' with an image of a castle and mountains. At the bottom, there is a grid of menu items under four categories: 'Offers', 'Booking information', 'Train fleet', and 'Popular connections'. The 'Exchange or cancellation' link under 'Booking information' is highlighted with a red box.

- Please select the „bahn.de“ homepage. There you will find information concerning „Exchanges or cancellation“.
- Click the link to start the cancellation process.

How to refund your Online-Ticket

Step 9:

The screenshot shows the DB website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Offers', 'Booking Information', 'Train Fleet', 'My Bahn', and 'Login'. Below this, a breadcrumb trail reads 'Home → Booking Information → Exchanging or cancelling tickets and seat reservations'. The main content area is titled 'Exchanging or cancelling tickets or reservations' and is divided into two columns: 'With a "My Bahn" customer account' and 'Without a "My Bahn" customer account'. The 'Without a "My Bahn" customer account' section contains the 'Order search' form, which is highlighted with a red box. The form includes fields for 'Order Number', 'Surname of the passenger', and 'Verification code*'. A sample verification code '4dNht' is shown with a red 'X' over it. Below the form, there is a 'Cancel' button and a 'Search' button, both highlighted with red boxes.

- Continue by clicking „Order search“
- Enter your Order number, your surname and the given verification code.
- Confirm your entry by clicking „Search“
- Next you need to choose, if you wish to exchange or cancel your ticket.
